Overview

Alexandra's civil litigation practice concentrates in the areas of insurance coverage, product liability, and general litigation. She has experience representing a diverse range of companies and industries.

Prior to joining Peabody & Arnold, Alexandra litigated construction defect, personal injury, and legal malpractice matters in Massachusetts. In addition, Alexandra clerked for the Connecticut Superior Court, where she assisted in drafting memoranda, orders, and decisions on complex legal issues such as breach of fiduciary duties, negligent infliction of emotional distress, hostile work environment, and breach of contract.

Alexandra received her Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School. During law school, she served as a Chief Note Editor for the Journal of High Technology Law as well as a student attorney for the Innocence Clinic.

Interests

Alexandra enjoys skiing, exercising, reading, and spending time with her family and friends.
