Overview

Brittany is developing her practice in directors and officer’s liability coverage and insurance defense. She serves as insurance coverage and monitoring counsel and assists Fortune 500 companies across the U.S. and abroad in claims under directors and officers, fiduciary liability, employment practices, and professional liability policies. In her role as monitoring counsel, Brittany provides assessments of potential liability, exposures, and damages under the policies for all forms of civil litigation against corporate officers and directors including securities fraud litigation, investigations by governmental agencies, shareholder derivative suits, ERISA lawsuits, and employment practices lawsuits.

Prior to joining Peabody & Arnold as an associate, Brittany was a Law Clerk in the D&O Group at Peabody & Arnold.
