Senior Counsel

Harvey Weiner

By Peabody & Arnold on July 16, 2024

Peabody & Arnold LLP is proud to announce that Harvey Weiner has been selected as a member of the Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly Hall of Fame. Membership in the Hall of Fame is reserved for accomplished Massachusetts lawyers who have been practicing for 30 years or more and have made significant contributions to the development of the law in Massachusetts while supporting efforts to improve the quality of justice in Massachusetts. Harvey joined Peabody & Arnold in 1970 and was a partner in the firm from 1976 to 2017. He was chairman of the Litigation Department from 1995-2014 and founded the firm's Professional Liability Group. Harvey has been a leading figure in the Massachusetts legal community for decades and has been a mentor and teacher to generations of young lawyers. He is a decorated combat veteran who proudly served the country during the Vietnam War and rose to the rank of Captain in the United States Army. Harvey has been a tireless advocate for veterans' benefits, donating countless hours of his time to litigating in support of service members. Harvey's many accomplishments are too long to list and his induction into the Hall of Fame is a fitting honor to a distinguished career.
