Peabody & Arnold congratulates attorney Maureen T. DeSimone on her selection as a fellow of the 2022-23 class of the Massachusetts Bar Association's Leadership Academy. The academy fellows are selected after an intensive application process. "The MBA's Leadership Academy provides fellows with an opportunity to network, collaborate and build relationships with bar leaders; develop and enhance leadership skills important to their future in the legal profession; and get an insider's look at the important role the MBA plays within the legal system." More information on this year's class of academy fellows can be found here.

Maureen concentrates her practice on employment law and litigation. Maureen represents, advises, and counsels employers in a variety of employment matters, including discrimination claims, wrongful termination, employment practices, policies and procedures, internal complaints, workplace conflict, and day-to-day employee matters.
